CHICAGO, May 1.- The claim of Charles S. Leeds for $125,000 against the estate of the late Charles T. Verkes has been dismissed by Judge Cutting in the Probate Court in a decision which representatives of the property believe will go far toward putting an end to several other large claims still pending. The Leeds claim was based on alleged services rendered in assisting Yerkes to buy the Suburban Railroad in 1897. Leeds claimed that Yerkes had agreed to pay him $425,090 for his work, but although it was done in 1897 Leeds made no claim during Yerkee's lifetime and it was not until 1997, the year after Yerkee's fact.

Before he had partaken of breakfast the Prince received a delegation of Chinese who had come to do him honor; LONG ISLAND GETS A SHAKE, two hours later he was on the Govern ment ordnance steamer Gen. Meigs hurrying down the outer bay to Sandy Hook; before dark he was back in New York and out in an automobile looking us over.

Perhaps his Highness has one reason for hurrying which has not yet become apparent, but of which he may have had knowledge shortly after he arrived in rattled and windows shook. These on their feet could feel the tremor plainly.

At once telephone calls began to go out cording to some of the Tokio newspapers ver the surrounding country seeking which arrived in New York yesterday there is a diverting little tale of inter national politics behind this incident.

These authorities say that just as soon as the Japanese Ambassador at Pekin Inquiry along the shores of the island learned that Prince Teal Tao was ready to start for America he communicated my trace of any shock. with his home office, and the Minister for Foreign Affairs of Japan, looking over his NEW HAVEN RAISES RATES.

Some Advances Put Into Effect and Others of diplomatic of urtesy, selected his Highness Prince Iesato Tokugawa, President of the House of Peers and the third son of the last Shogun of Japan, for a hurry up hike to America. So acute are the jealousies of the nations represented at Pekin over the wooing press admits, Japan could not but view with alarm the fortheoming visit to America of Prince Tsai Tao and the honors that were awaiting him. So Prince Tokugawa was speeded on his way east ward on no particular mission that has become apparent, but just as a Prince and one of the highest of princes. He is already on the way from Seattle, and he will be in New York on May 4, the day before the uncle of the Chinese Emperor departs for Europe. Police Commissioner Baker, Robert Adamson, the Mayor's secretary, and Gen. Nelson H. Henry and Major R. L. Foster of the Governor's staff were at Jersey City on the police boat Patrol to welcome Prince Tsai Tao and his staff when the train from Washington drew into the station. Before the sleep was well out of their eyes the Prince, Lord Li Chang Mai, who is a son of the famous Li Hung Chang and the official interpre ter for the Prince, and all the colonels He is at his office every day attending to and majors of the Prince's staff were skimming across the river.
